APRIL PROGRAMS

APRIL 28 CLUB ASSEMBLY

Mitch Hull, or President Elect speaks about the Kiva Program, a program that provides loans for low income entrepreneurs. More information can be obtained from their website... Kiva.org

Connie Tracy joined us with 3 of her students from Houston Middle School to tell us why they Relay.

The students read essays they wrote and told us about their team plans for Relay for Life. They also requested help financially to get going on their supplies for their team. The club agreed to sponsor them for the $200 they requested by a unanimous vote.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

SPECIAL PROJECTS...Ralph reported that now that the supplies are purchased, he will need help constructing the Kids Don't Float racks. A tentative time is the weekend after Relay for Life, which is the 24th, 25th of May.

District Conference is May 8, 9, 10. Are you planning on attending? It will be a fun time and a great way to learn more about Rotary.

Nola reported on the Health Fair. Remember to join us at 7:30 Sat at Willow Community Center to get your blood work done and volunteer for the Health Fair. Nola requested that everyone fill out their volunteer paperwork and turn it in today.

We have a carryover this week of $100.
